healthcare professional; and four, be signed by the student's parents or guardian and the licensed care provider responsible for treatment of the student's diabetic condition. The school may consult with a registered nurse or any other healthcare professional employed by the school during the development of the plan. And the plan must be...the plan and signed statement must be provided by the parent or guardian and must be kept on file at the school where the student is enrolled. Pursuant to a diabetes medical management plan, a student with a diabetic condition will be permitted to self-manage their diabetic condition in the classroom or any other part of the school or on the school grounds during any school-related activity, or in any private location specified in the plan. The school may prohibit a student from possessing the necessary medical supplies to self-manage his or her diabetic condition or place any other necessary or appropriate restrictions or conditions on the student's self-management plan of his or her diabetic condition if the school determines the student has endangered himself, herself, or others through the misuse or threatened misuse of such medical supplies. The school must promptly notify the parent or guardian of any prohibition, restriction, or condition imposed. If a student for whom the diabetes management plan has been developed has developed injuries, school personnel and other students, as a result of the misuse of necessary diabetic medical supplies, the parent or guardian of the student for whom the plan has been developed will be responsible for any and all costs associated with the injury. I want to also acknowledge working with the school board administrators as to developing this and working with our counsel to develop this plan, and I would...it was also advanced 7 to 0 out of the Health and Human Services Committee. I would just ask adoption of the committee amendments. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Jensen. You've heard the opening on the committee amendments. Mr. Clerk, amendment to the amendments.

ASSISTANT CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Thompson would move to amend the committee amendments, AM2932. (Legislative Journal page 1257.)
